

PCBS Organized a Training Course in Introduction to Oracle Database and Oracle Development Tools

The Palestinian Central Bureau of Statistics has organized a training course in introduction to Oracle Database and Oracle development tools, ON 03/03/2007. Several programmers and computer engineers from the Ministry of Transportation attended the course .

Director General of Palestinian statistical training center Mr. Majdi Samara has opened the course mentioning that the course aimed to enhance the knowledge and application development skills of the trainees.

The training course is conducted within the context of PCBS user training policy.