Palestinian Central Bureau of Statistics (PCBS)

on the Palestinian registered* external trade on goods for January/ 2011 Increase of both imports and exports compared to December 2010.

Exports:

Exports increased in January, 2011 by 13.8% compared to December, 2010 and reached US$ 66.8 Million.

Exports to Israel increased in January, 2011 by 26.1% compared to December, 2010.

On the other hand, exports decreased by 53.2% to other countries during the same period compared to December, 2010.

Exports to Israel represents 92.9% of total exports in January this year.

Imports:

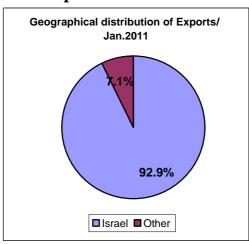

Imports increased in January, 2011 by 4.4% compared to December, 2010 and reached to US$ 421.7 Million.

Imports from Israel decreased by 0.6% in January, 2011 compared to December, 2010.

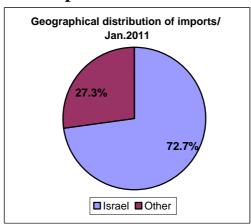

Imports from Israel represents 72.7% of total imports.

On the other hand, imports from other countries indicate an increase by 19.7% compared to December, 2010.

Exports distribution:

Imports distribution:

Trade Balance:

The trade balance (Difference between exports and imports) indicates an increase in trade deficit by 2.7% compared to December, 2010 and reached US$ 354.9

*: Includes actual data received from official sources